Another tour was made yesterday n the Bronx for procuring play plots for the children, under the auspices of the Safety First Society in co-operation with The Evening World campaign for more playgrounds.

are badly in need of such spaces. We found hundreds of children in the BIG VACANT BLOCK OWNED BY streets playing and in constant danger of passing vehicles. Dr. Ed ard Hronstein, President of the Bronx
Young Men's Association, accompanied the party. Dr. Bronstein said:
"The citizens of the Bronx, especially the younger element, certainly appreciate the splendid efforts made by The Evening World in obtaining more recreation centres.
There are various available plots and I am confident that the owness of these properties in this vicinity will gladly co-operate with the movement of the Bronx accompanies and the street. thickly populated areas of Greater

New York. "The Park Commissioner, I believe, will do everything to help get these places ready if the owners' consent is procured, and ludging from the splendid work done in the direction of playlots elsewhere, I am sure the Bronx will not be far behind.

"Even if we are late in getting these places started this summer, I will be a boon to the children as well as to the parents. Besides, it will create the proper precedent for next year. It will not be a difficult matter to again establish these playgrounds when once they have started. So that ployed in the pearl button factory of the efforts extended now will not only help matters this summer, but will day afternoon she and her emprove a good foundation to begin with in the spring of next year."

PLOTS OF PUBLIC DEPARTMENTS AVAILABLE.

The party visited many plots all over the Bronx. There are several public properties belonging to various public departments for which there will be an immediate request, since the Mayor has urged such departments to turn over vacant property for this purpose.

iam Whitington, employed at the stables of M. B. Bamberger at Ocean. port, was caught at Entontown last night by Chief of Police James F. Lynch a few hours after attacking Constance, the eleven-year-old daughter of Harry Higman of Oceanport. Violet Rogers, daughter of George Rogers of No. 200 West One Hundred and Seventh street, New York, and Venetia Walthens of Eat-

York, and Venetia Walthens of Eatontown, were with the girl when Whitington grabebd her and knocked her down in the wodos.

In the man's pockets were found several letters and pawn tickets from different New York shops, and chains, diamonds, a gold locket, a pin, buttons and rasor. Some of the letters were signed William Spillane and others by White. A diary telephone call, Plaza 4110, and $13.35 were also found.

THREE LYNCHINGS IN DRY.

MONROE, La., Aug. 7.—Preston Griffin and Charles Green, negroes, were taken from the local City Hall jall today and hanged by a mob. Less than twenty-four hours before Henry Holmes was lynched near hele in connecton with the same crime for which the other two were lynched. The men were accused of murdering a white man.

A. J. Madden, an aged grocer, was killed by burglars Wednesday night and Holmes was captured and lynched by a mob several hours later. He is said to have confessed and implicated the two other negroes in the crime. Hall and Griffin were arrested yesterday. Fearing they would be lynched, the sheriff locked them in the city hall tower. The mob located the negroes when one of them lighted a cigarette, and the double lynching followed.
